Unusual Job Offers

Instructions for Students:

- You will imagine that you've received an unexpected job offer, but this job is far from ordinary!
- In pairs or small groups, you'll receive a card with a unique job listed on it. Discuss within your group whether you would take the job or not, what the job might involve, and how you would manage in that role.
- After discussing, switch partners or groups and share your thoughts on the job with your new group.

Teacher's Notes:

- You can assign one card to each pair/group or give multiple cards for them to choose from.
- Encourage students to use language related to professions, responsibilities, and personal preferences during their discussions.
