Psychology Game

Rules:

1. Work in pairs where one student acts as a client with a specific problem, and the other acts as a psychologist.
2. The client describes their problem in detail, providing enough context for the psychologist to understand the issue.
3. The psychologist listens carefully to the client's description of their problem and asks various questions to help the client explore their thoughts and feelings.
4. Through the conversation, the psychologist assists the client in possibly finding solutions to their problem.
5. After a set amount of time, students switch roles and repeat the process with a new problem.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

Your cat has become overly attached and follows you everywhere, even to the bathroom. You find it hard to have any privacy.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Help the client find strategies to give their cat some independence while maintaining their sanity.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

Your can't stop making and watching silly TikTok videos, even at inappropriate times, like during meetings or family dinners.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Help the client find a balance between enjoying social media and staying present in real-life interactions.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have developed a habit of laughing uncontrollably during serious moments, like in meetings, movies, or even at a funeral.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Explore techniques to control laughter and understand why it happens.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You are constantly paranoid about wardrobe malfunctions after an embarrassing incident involving ripped pants at a public event.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Help the client regain confidence in their clothing choices and handle potential wardrobe mishaps gracefully.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have taken up a new hobby, knitting, and are now obsessively knitting everywhere you go, even during meetings and meals.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Discuss ways to enjoy hobbies without them interfering with daily life.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have a tendency to sleepwalk and play pranks on family members, like putting toothpaste in their shoes. This is causing tension at home.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Find ways to manage sleepwalking and prevent unintended pranks.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have a huge crush on a celebrity and spend too much time daydreaming and talking about them, annoying your friends and family.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Help the client balance their celebrity admiration with real-life relationships.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have become overly dependent on your smart gadgets, using them for everything from turning on the lights to making your coffee, and now feel helpless when the gadgets fail.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Encourage the client to develop basic life skills and reduce their reliance on technology.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have taken DIY projects too far, attempting to build everything from furniture to appliances, often with disastrous results.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Encourage the client to pursue DIY projects safely and realistically.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You plan out every minute of your day, including time for spontaneous activities, leaving no room for actual spontaneity.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Help the client learn to relax and be more flexible with their schedule.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You turn every activity into a competition, from eating breakfast to walking the dog, making it hard for friends and family to relax around you.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Help the client enjoy activities without feeling the need to always compete.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You keep accidentally buying clothes that are two sizes too small because you refuse to try them on in the store.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Help the client find a solution to avoid fashion faux pas and make shopping a more enjoyable experience.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You use multiple gadgets simultaneously and constantly get confused, trying to answer your phone with the TV remote.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:
Help the client manage their tech usage more effectively and avoid tech-related mishaps.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You have developed a series of superstitious rituals you must perform daily, like hopping on one foot before entering a room, and it's starting to interfere with your life.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Help the client find ways to reduce their reliance on superstitions.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You eat at Chinese restaurants every day just for the fortune cookies and base all your decisions on the fortunes inside.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Encourage the client to make decisions based on logic rather than fortune cookie messages.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The client's problem

Student A

You get so excited at sales that you buy things you don't need, like six toasters and five blenders.

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen

The psychologist

Student B

Possible psychologist's goal:

Help the client develop strategies to control their excitement and make more thoughtful purchases.

Possible questions:

- Can you tell me more about how this problem is affecting you?
- What are the main factors contributing to this issue?
- How do you feel when you think about this situation?
- Have you faced a similar problem before? How did you handle it then?
- What outcomes are you hoping for in this situation?
- What resources or support systems do you have to help you with this problem?
- What steps have you already taken to try to resolve this issue?
- How do you think things would change if you solved this problem?

Licence issued for personal use, 37881, Rawat Praveen